

Our Seesaw platform has been invaluable during lockdown and we thank you for all your support.

We are taking Seesaw to the next level and using it for reading, home learning and as a collaborative tool in school. This means that children will be learning together on Seesaw, therefore their learning will be posted on both children's Seesaw accounts. If you have any questions about this, please contact your child's teacher.

